

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Colleen Fitzpatrick, Executive Director, Rotary Centre for the Arts

Email: director@rotarycentreforthearts.com

For Immediate Release -

Rotary Centre for the Arts presents
2024 Juno Nominee Dominique Fils-Aimé in Commemoration of Black History Month

(Kelowna, BC) – RCA Presents is excited to present Montreal's Jazz Soul artist, Dominique Fils-Aimé, to the stage at the Mary Irwin Theatre on Wednesday, February 21. This special evening features a captivating performance showcasing her latest album, "Our Roots Run Deep," nominated today for Vocal Jazz Album of the Year for a 2024 Juno Award.

In proud commemoration of Black History Month, RCA is delighted to present Dominique Fils-Aimé as part of its special events lineup. Known for her exploration of African-American musical influences, Fils-Aimé invites the audience on a soulful journey into the roots of her music. With a profound desire to connect with her higher self, fellow musicians, and the audience, she aims to envelop listeners in a comforting sonic embrace. Hailing from Montreal, the versatile singer-songwriter captivates with her radiant voice and a compelling message of empathy.

Andrew Stauffer, Theatre Programming Director, expresses his excitement, stating, "Much of Dominique's music explores African American history and the music that has come out of that history. She expertly fuses elements of soul, R&B, jazz, and blues while always maintaining a modern vibe. Her songs can be dark, but never sullen; joyous, though not saccharine; and always honest."

Fils-Aimé's accolades include a 2019 Felix for Jazz Album of the Year, a 2020 JUNO for Vocal Jazz Album of the Year, and nominations for the prestigious Polaris Music Prize shortlist in 2019 and 2021.

Tickets are available now for an experience that promises to be a fusion of soulful sounds and heartfelt storytelling.

For more information about Dominique Fils-Aimé visit: <https://domiofficial.com>

To purchase tickets, visit: <https://rotarycentreforthearts.com/events/event/165002>

About the Rotary Centre for the Arts

Located in the heart of Kelowna's Cultural District, the Rotary Centre for the Arts is a multidisciplinary visual and performing arts centre. The RCA improves the economic, cultural, and social quality of life in the community by fostering participation in, and appreciation of the arts. The RCA brings together individuals of all ages and backgrounds to share in the excitement of strengthening art and culture in the Okanagan celebrating creative expression through diverse art forms and disciplines. The Rotary Centre for the Arts respectfully acknowledges that it is located on the unceded, traditional territory of the Syilx/Okanagan People.

-30-